

Battery Energy Storage Cellular

Overview

Is bigger better for energy storage cells?

While pioneering the mass production of this cell, CATL, guided by its philosophy of creating real value, engaged the industry in exploring the optimal solution for next-gen large storage cells and fostering orderly, healthy development. The industry consensus is that bigger isn't always better for energy storage cells.

Does CATL have a next-generation energy storage cell?

CATL (SHE: 300750) has rolled out its next-generation energy storage battery cell, further expanding its bet in the sector. The battery giant announced at an event held in Shanghai yesterday that its 587 Ah high-capacity energy storage-specific cell has begun mass production and delivery.

What is the energy density of CATL 587 AH battery cell?

The 587 Ah high-capacity cell achieves an energy density of 434 Wh/L, a 10 percent improvement over the previous generation. CATL has deployed over 256 GWh of energy storage system capacity globally, serving more than 1,000 projects. (A video screenshot shows CATL's 587 Ah energy storage battery cell.).

What is CATL's new 587ah large-capacity battery cell?

Chinese battery giant CATL has officially released its latest 587Ah large-capacity battery cell, integrated into the next-generation TENER energy storage system. This new cell achieves a volumetric energy density of 430 Wh/L while demonstrating enhanced safety compared to traditional small-capacity cells.
