

Construction specifications for base stations of telecommunication operators

Overview

What are the technical specifications for mobile broadband base station Radio Frequency equipment?

Technical Specifications for Mobile Broadband Base Station Radio Frequency Equipment
1. Legal Basis The Specifications are established on Paragraph 2, Article 66 of the Telecommunications Management Act.
2. Definitions and Abbreviations:
2.1 Definitions: NTXU, counted per cell: Number of active transmission units in a single cell.

What is a telecommunications system (radio base station)?

A telecommunications system (radio base station) may comprise an equipment room/shelter which is a structure for housing power supply and transmission equipment and/or antennae which are fixed to roof parapet of a building or attached to supporting frames projecting from the external wall of a building.

What is a radio base station reconfiguration procedure?

This procedure outlines the application procedure to be followed by the mobile services operators (hereinafter called the “operators”) for the reconfiguration of existing radio base stations NOT involving changes in the structural design and planning perspective of the parent building, and the change of land use.

What is the maximum rated power output for a base station?

Wide area base station (note 1) Medium range base station ≤ 38 dBm (note 2)
Local area base station ≤ 24 dBm (note 2)
Note 1: no upper limit for the rated power output, $P_{rated,c,AC}$, for wide area base station. Note 2: the limits may be relaxed according to Table 41.
