Overview

What is a containerized data center?

A containerized data center, also known as a modular data center, is a data center within a container. For companies that need to increase IT capacity quickly, affordably and temporarily, containerized data centers are a great option, and customized modular data centers can more permanently scale services and support.

What is a modular data center container?

IT containers based on the modular principle. Modular data centers in containers are the perfect, scalable solution – whether individually for SME, cloud and Edge applications, or as preconfigured data center containers. Growing data volumes and escalating requirements often lead to space problems in existing IT environments.

What is a container data center?

Container data centers are designed to be walk-in, fully integrated, and weather-resistant, enabling them to be deployed in outdoor environments. Typically, containerized data centers are used for new deployments, including both large free-standing data centers and smaller edge facilities. 2. Prefabricated Data Halls.
