

Flywheel energy storage trend

Overview

What is the market share of Flywheel energy storage in 2025?

Utility will dominate with a 46.8% market share in 2025. The flywheel energy storage market is projected to reach USD 1.3 billion in 2025 and expand to USD 2.0 billion by 2035, advancing at a CAGR of 4.2 % during this period.

Are flywheel energy storage systems a good choice?

Li-ion and lead-acid batteries are the most commonly used energy storage systems here. However, advantages of flywheel energy storage systems such as higher efficiency and longer life are projected to increase the demand for flywheel energy storage systems, within the country.

What are flywheels used for?

Flywheels are used as intermediate energy storage systems for transport applications such as automobiles. Flywheel storage energy systems are more commonly used in Formula 1 cars and hybrid vehicles. However, manufacturers such as Maruti Suzuki have adopted this technology for passenger vehicles also.

How much energy does a flywheel store?

It would probably have to be in a cement enclosure, and in Florida a sump pump to keep it dry. A 1,000kg, 5m, 200RPM flywheel would store 685,567J of energy if it was shaped like a disc. That's 0.19kWh of energy — enough to boil the water for about seven (7) cups of tea or run a typical airconditioner for about 10 minutes.
