Overview

What is a solarcontainer?

Solarcontainer explained: What are mobile solar systems?

The Solarcontainer represents a grid-independent solution as a mobile solar plant. Especially in remote areas it can guarantee a stable energy supply or support or almost replace a public grid with strong power fluctuations, as well as diesel generators that are used.

Why do solar panels and wind turbines need storage?

The ability to store the electricity generated by solar panels and wind turbines is the key to getting energy to users when they need it—during outages, when the sun is not shining, or the wind is not turning the turbine's blades. Storage helps balance electricity generation and demand—creating a more flexible and reliable grid.

How can a solar container not cast a shadow on a photovoltaic system?

This property makes it possible for the container not to cast a shadow on the mobile photovoltaic system. The solar container is lifted using the corner corners in the roof frame. With these in the base frame, the module can be fixed and secured during transport using the twist-lock system.

How is a solar container lifted?

The solar container is lifted using the corner corners in the roof frame. With these in the base frame, the module can be fixed and secured during transport using the twist-lock system. The solar rail system consists of individual segments that are used during construction connected to the fixed, centrally arranged container floor.
