How big is China's energy storage capacity?

The cumulative installed capacity of new energy storage in China is expected to exceed 100 gigawatts (GW) by 2025, according to the Energy Storage Industry Research White Paper 2025 released by the Institute of Engineering Thermophysics on 10 April. The capacity is likely to surpass 200GW by 2030, more than double the 2024 level of 73.76GW.

How big is China's energy capacity?

Of this, 74% came from utility-scale assets over 100 MW, marking a clear shift toward large, centralized systems. By the end of 2024, China's cumulative capacity reached 62 GW/141 GWh. Standalone storage and renewable-paired systems accounted for 95% of all installations.

How much power is installed in China?

Installed capacity exceeds 62 GW in China as the market shifts toward large, centralized systems with power outputs greater than 100 MW.

What is China's Power Battery output?

According to the data released by China Automotive Power Battery Industry Innovation Alliance, the total output of power batteries is 70.6Wh, of which ternary batteries have the highest output and the highest percentage (see Fig. 1, Fig. 2, Fig. 3).
