Overview

What is a lead acid battery container?

Lead Acid Battery Container - for safe battery storage and transportation. The Battery Transport & Storage (BTS) Container was purposely designed as a lead acid battery container, for the regulation compliant, safe and environmentally responsible storage and transportation of used lead acid batteries.

What is a lead storage container?

Lead storage containers can be used to store and transport radioactive material. The standard outside and inside finishing is coated lead so there is no exposure to the lead by personnel. A stainless steel finishing is also available to provide a stronger housing. The lead containers can be equipped with handles for multiple handling methods.

What are the components of a lead-acid battery?

A lead-acid battery consists of two main components: the anode, which is made up of a group of lead-bismuth alloy grids filled with spongy metal lead, and the cathode, which is made up of lead-bismuth alloy grid filled with alumina. In a lead-acid battery, the anode is the negative electrode, and the cathode is the positive electrode.
