

Maldives sodium-sulfur battery energy storage container

Overview

What is a standard NaS battery container?

A standard single NAS battery container has 1.45 MWh energy capacity. The containers are stackable, enabling utility scale energy storage systems. We supply containerized NAS battery systems: one standard 20-ft container has 1.45 MWh energy capacity. The compact form enables easy transportation and quick installation at our customers' sites.

Should NaS batteries be co-located with hydrogen production?

Not surprisingly, NAS batteries have been chosen in several recent projects for co-location with hydrogen production. Across the globe, testing and certification of energy storage technologies from cell to system level according to UL9540A and UL1973 standards is becoming crucial for bankability.

Where can NaS batteries be deployed?

NAS batteries can be deployed in all climate zones, in extreme cold as well as in extreme heat, without supplementary air conditioning equipment. All raw materials used in NAS batteries are abundantly found on earth. There are no issues with the supply chain or price volatility. NAS batteries require only minimal preventive maintenance.

Does BASF sell NaS batteries?

Today, BASF not only distributes the NAS battery worldwide, it is also working with NGK on the next generation of sodium-sulfur batteries, with product launches forthcoming in 2024. To learn more about NAS batteries, visit the BASF website here.
