

New Project Energy Storage

Overview

Will China develop new energy storage systems between 2025 and 2027?

BEIJING, Sept. 12 -- China on Friday unveiled an action plan to promote the development of new forms of energy storage between 2025 and 2027, amid efforts to support green energy transition and ensure the stability of new-type power systems.

Why is Tesla building a large-scale energy storage facility in China?

Their growing use helps stabilize power grids, prevent outages, and reduce reliance on fossil fuels. This project is Tesla's first large-scale energy storage installation in China, complementing its existing automotive manufacturing presence in the city through Giga Shanghai.

Why is China moving to a new type of energy storage?

The move is part of China's broader push toward a green, low-carbon energy transition as well as high-quality economic and social development. It builds on significant growth in the sector. As of the end of 2024, the country's installed capacity of new-type energy storage had reached 73.76 million kilowatts, according to official data.

What is the energy storage plan?

The plan outlined 21 key measures, including scaling up energy storage applications in power generation and grid infrastructure, accelerating technological innovation, and improving standardization. It also emphasized talent development and enhancing international cooperation in the sector.
