

New Zealand capacitor energy storage equipment manufacturer

Overview

Which energy company is building New Zealand's first grid-connected battery energy storage system?

Meridian Energy is building New Zealand's first large-scale grid-connected battery energy storage system (BESS) at Ruakākā on North Island. On January 10, 2023, Saft, a subsidiary of TotalEnergies, has been awarded a major contract by Meridian Energy to construct New Zealand's first large-scale grid-connected BESS.

How much money has been invested in battery technology in New Zealand?

At that time, we invested more than $2 million to understand how battery technologies can play a part in the future of New Zealand's electricity ecosystem. How much power will the BESS project at Whakamaru generate?

It will have a total installed capacity of between 200-300MW.

Who installs smart systems in Southland & Otago?

In Southland and Otago, our official installation partner is NES—a leader in electrical and energy solutions across the lower South Island. With NES handling the install, you can expect smart systems delivered with local knowledge, reliability, and unmatched service.

Will a 100-megawatt solar farm improve New Zealand's national grid?

Located at Ruakākā in the country's North Island, the 100-megawatt (MW) BESS will improve the stability of the national grid, as intermittent renewable power generation increases in New Zealand. The BESS is the first stage of a project that will include the construction of a co-located 130 MW solar farm by Meridian Energy.
