Overview

Are solar energy resources a risk factor for rooftop PV system construction?

The study revealed that areas with abundant solar energy resources and higher electricity prices have a lower economic risk for rooftop PV system construction under the current subsidy price and cost. This finding provides valuable insights and serves as a reference for constructing rooftop PV systems in different regions of China.

Can rooftop solar be used in rural areas?

The substantial potential of rooftop solar can meet the current annual electricity demands of rural households, and can also address the wider electricity needs of sectors such as agriculture and forestry, collectively amounting to approximately 550 billion kWh.

Can rooftop solar power boost rural income?

Dongwen Liu, CEO of Chongho Bridge, noted that rooftop solar projects could boost the annual cash income of rural populations by 10%-20%. The collaboration with Chongho Bridge is anticipated to yield significant environmental and social benefits for rural households, businesses and their wider communities through rooftop solar power generation.

Are distributed rooftop solar installations better than ground-mounted solar installations?

Source: McKinsey. Distributed rooftop solar, offering several advantages over large-scale ground-mounted facilities, is increasingly preferred. These installations, accounting for 58% of new PV installations in 2022, are favored due to lower investment requirements, reduced construction costs and greater flexibility.
