Overview

What is happening in Spain's lithium-ion battery market?

The Spain lithium-ion battery market is entering a new stage of rapid development. The Zaragoza plant of global automotive giant Stellantis is partnering with CATL, the world's largest EV battery manufacturer, to expand electric vehicle production and build a large-scale battery manufacturing facility in Spain.

Does CATL have a battery plant in Spain?

CATL's upcoming battery plant in Spain will be an add-on to its existing facilities in Germany and Hungary. These operations have made CATL a global leader in battery innovation, with the company consistently topping in EV battery usage and energy storage shipments worldwide.

Where will CATL & stellantis build a battery factory?

(AP Photo/Ng Han Guan, File) BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — Chinese electric battery company CATL and automaker Stellantis will build a major battery factory in northern Spain, the partners announced Tuesday. They said the plant will be located in Zaragoza and start producing lithium iron phosphate batteries by the end of 2026.

Will CATL and stellantis reshape Europe's Lithium-ion battery market?

If finalized, the joint venture between CATL and Stellantis in Spain will reshape the Spain lithium-ion battery market, further integrating the European EV ecosystem. For CATL, this would add another overseas plant to its growing global footprint.
