Can cement be stored and transported in bagged or bulk form?

Cement can be stored and transported in bagged or bulk form. In the construction of large and medium-sized projects, due to the large demand for cement, bulk cement is usually used, and cylindrical silos (i.e. cement steel silos) are used to improve the mechanization of cement storage and transportation.

How does a cement silo work?

The cement silo is usually located close to the batching plant and is connected to it by a conveyor belt or other means of transportation. The cement silo is used to store the cement until it is needed for the production of matter, which allows the batching plant to operate continuously without having to stop and refill the cement.
